Take another look at your dog.
What is he? A four-legged hearthrug with fully automatic tail –
a chip off the old jackal, in fact?

Or a part-tamed wolf
with the soul of a vagabond?

Sneak another look at yourself, too.

What are you? His pack-leader?

(We're joking, of course.)

His mother . . . or just the man
he keeps to buy the licence?

And then let Konrad Lorenz explain to you the facts of life with a dog – or a cat – in the house.

The subtle, tested, unspoken facts.

He has expert knowledge,
a fund of stories, and a kindly eye
for your human limitations.
